

Choose A-level Psychology

Ever wondered if prison really does change criminal behaviour?

Or why some people conform?

Or perhaps if the experiences you had before the age of five really do shape the person you are today?

A-level Psychology will give you an understanding of the way people think and why people behave in certain ways.

You will learn a variety of skills including analytical thinking, improved communication, problem solving and many more that will prepare you for an exciting future with the possibility of a range of fantastic careers.

Possible career options

Studying psychology at university can give you a whole host of exciting career options, including:

- Marketing
- Business development
- Accountancy
- Human resources
- Forensic psychology
- Occupational therapy
- Clinical psychology
- Nursing
- Teaching.

What topics will you study?

- Memory
- Attachment
- Approaches in psychology
- Biopsychology
- Psychopathology
- Social Influence
- Research methods
- Issues and debates in Psychology
- Relationships
- Schizophrenia
- Aggression

Assessment

There are three exams, each one counts for a third of your a Level. Each exam is two hours and consists of multiple choice, short answer and extended writing questions.

Entry Requirements

Five GCSEs at grade 4 or better, including two sciences, English language and mathematics

Chilwell School Sixth Form

Chilwellschool.co.uk/sixthform

