TGR Embroidery:

We are a small, family run business based in Attenborough with our own children currently attending Chilwell School. We pride ourselves on great customer service and always try our best to accommodate the needs of both the parents and pupils. All of our embroidery is carried out on-site which gives us better control of quality and production.

We have a sizing set of uniform available to try on at the shop. Please feel free to pop in any time and you can order online or directly at the shop.

Please see our website (address above) for the full range of uniform and prices.
